

Utah Governor's Office of Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

THE CENTER OF THE WORLD MINING INDUSTRY
XII WORLD EXHIBITION & CONFERENCE FOR THE LATIN AMERICA MINING

9 - 13 APRIL

SANTIAGO - CHILE
ESPACIO RIESCO

expomin
2012

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development
BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Geography of Chile

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

At an average of 110 miles wide, Chile is the narrowest country in the world.

Located on South America's west coast, Chile shares its northern border with Peru and its eastern border with Argentina

Population 17 million

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Geography of Chile

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

Five Regions

Far North – Desert zone

Near North – Valle del Elqui

Central North – Santiago, the capital city

Near South – Chiloé with more than 40 islands

Far South – Patagonia Region

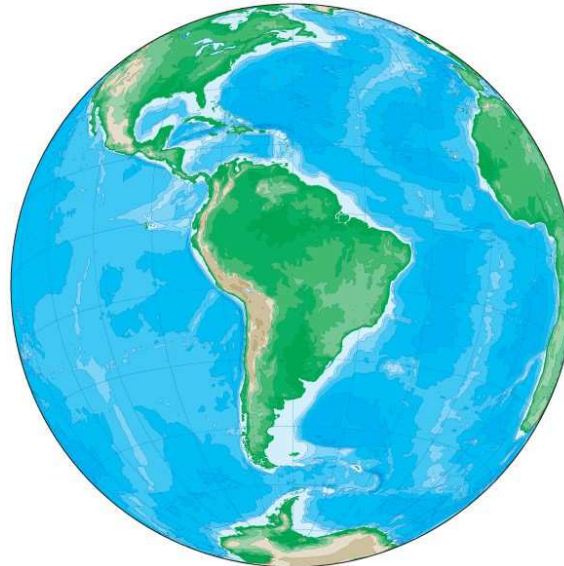

Mining in Latin America

Chile, Peru, Mexico, Brazil and Argentina account for 80% of mining exploration in Latin America.

These countries currently account for 80% of mining exploration in Latin America, approximately US$3 billion of mining investment.

A variety of minerals.

- Copper, tin, iron, silver, gold, nickel, etc.
- Industrial minerals such as lithium and iodine.

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Copper Mining in Chile

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

Chuquibambilla, Peru – the largest open pit copper mine in the world

Chile has a portfolio of approximately US$41 billion in copper investments between 2010 and 2018.

Chile will have contributed approximately 6.8 million tons of copper to the world market by 2015 and 7.3 tons by 2020.

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

- Over 60,000 visitors
- More than 1,200 participating companies
- And 30 or more countries represented

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Expomin 2012 Program

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

TWO CONFERENCES

Mining in Latin America: Challenges and Opportunities

Head representatives of regional mining chambers will present new investment and business opportunities within the major mining countries in Latin America.

A Strategic look at China's Entry Into Latin America

Presentations by China-based mining executives on the economic and technological development of the oriental giant and the challenges and opportunities regarding mining procurement from China.

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Expomin 2012 Program

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

THREE WORKSHOPS

Water and Energy Supply and Management

A presentation of the best technologies available that will assure the competitiveness of mining in Latin America.

Mining Safety: Risks and Accidents Prevention

A discussion of new technological developments that will improve mining safety.

Metals Recovery from Mining Waste

An in-depth discussion of processes concerning the recovery of metals from mining waste, and a review of new national and international regulations.

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Expomin 2012 Program

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

TWO NETWORKING EVENTS

Opportunities for students and new professional in mining.

A strategic meeting for our younger generation that will focus on human capital, a key issue for the development of the mining sector.

International Match-making

This event will foster strategic face-to-face meetings between Expomin 2012 exhibitors and procurement executives from the mining and energy sectors and supply companies.

Utah Governor's Office of
Economic Development

BUSINESS • TOURISM • FILM

Goals of Expomin

UTAH
LIFE ELEVATED™

Expomin is the ideal platform to help you begin mining operations or promote your products throughout Latin America.

deeper prospection and production - harder rock processing mining at high altitudes - transition from open pit to underground - water and energy supply management of impurities - human resources safety and accident prevention